President H. S. Bhatoe Chandigarh	Greetings from Neurotrauma society of India! Once again thank you all for your spirited efforts!
President Elect B. S. Sharma New Delhi	As we enter the last three months of the year, evaluating our performances so far and geared up to finish promised tasks, I take this opportunity to wish you all great festival time-Durga puja, Dushehra and Diwali.
Hon. Secretary V.D.Sinha Jaipur	We aspire to introspect, discuss and improve our activities and I request all of you to come up with suggestions to improve the quality of our conferences and make them more meaningful. There has been an observation and comment of many participants that conferences are becoming socializing events with most delegates using those days as family holidays and almost nil participation in academic events, so much so that the conference halls have just the speakers and few accompanying delegates.
Past President Vasant Dakwale Indore R.C.Mishra Agra	Conferences are opportunities to expand your knowledge, improve our skills, share experiences and network with others in our fields. Sessions are designed for our personal and professional growth. All the exercise of planning and executing good academic sessions go waste with this approach.
Treasurer Sanjay Kumar Rachi	To ensure better attendance and participation of audience, we propose audience response evaluation system, attendance certificates at the end of the sessions etc.
Members Dr Sanjay Gupta, Moradabad	Let us all come up with ideas to improvise and implement them ofcourse, we would want them to be infused with a lot of fun and enthusiasm, so that all of us leave with refreshed outlook, may be follow or precede our pleasure trip and make the most of the conferences.
Dr. Sarvpreet Singh Grewal, Ludhiana	Looking forward to mindful and indulgent responses from all of you
Dr. Sharad S. Rajamani, Bangalore	Dr. V D Sinha Secretary
Dr. Navanil Barua, Dispur, Guwahati
Editor IJNT Yashbir Dewan
